GUIDELINES FOR INTERNS WITH EXPRESSIONS OF EMMANUEL

Manage your time and finances wisely as both of these factors are barometers of your emerging maturity.

Accept criticism and affirmation with equal grace, and integrate both in the learning of new tasks and establishment of new relationships.

Develop healthy relationships with as many people as possible in the local congregation, organization, and/or mission.

Seek more direction and evaluation from your supervisor if you think it is needed

Your attitude and conduct reflect on Expressions of Emmanuel, and on Jesus Christ.

Some tasks assigned to you may seem unpleasant and irksome. Accept these tasks as a challenge, not a problem and use the time to broaden your experience in leadership.

Remember Colossians 3:23 "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men."

Remember that you are an Intern and you are still in the learning process.

We are not able to provide a salary, but can provide room and board and compensation for travel. We also can write a recommendation letter to help you in raising mission support.

You do not have to have previous experience with sign language, but this is a great opportunity to learn!
